From the Outside

Monthly Letter from Bruce King, Pres

Flattest March I can remember, even though my memory isn't that good, nonetheless, it's shaping up to be a great Spring in San Diego. The best surf I have caught lately was "bank surfing" in Titus Canyon in Death Valley. I had a good time. It felt good to get out of town - Way out of town.

I hope everyone had a wonderful Easter & enjoyed our annual Easter Egg hunt at Glen Park. As for me, I got caught up in the desert, it was mighty beautiful. I would like to thank Evan Crabtree, among others for making this Easter a happy one for all the kids.

The pancake breakfast at Cardiff Reef was a little put off by the weather, with rain, wind, and crummy waves. We are planning to have another one, when the weather clears up. Many thanks go to Tim Redfield, Pat Pazzoli, and last but not least to Doug Jopes (who was a little late). Thank you all very much.

I have been trying to get a hold of Brad Gerlach, a long time club member for the next meeting, to see if he can bring some videos & talk a bit. Hopefully I can, as he is a busy guy. So be square and be there for our next meeting.

I have to cut this a little short as I am on the road to Santa Barbara for an art show put together by Vince Felix, entitled Aquanauts, which to quote the flier, "will, in part, pay tribute to the watermen who influence surf life: Micki Dora, Jay Moriarty, and Syrus King to name a few." Thank You Vince Felix, professional longboarder & Surf Brother.

And to Tom English, I hope I didn't push you too far out. I thank you for your help.

See you at the next meeting.

Bruce King
