Bruce streaking at Malibu

From the Outside

Monthly letter from Bruce King, Pres

From The Outside

Sept MSA contest at Malibu was pretty ding dang good. I would like to thank the Malibu Surfing Association for putting on such a great event. The good waves, good vibes, and dinner on the beach was a real treat. Friday before the contest was extremely good with a deep south swell making it hard for people down the line to you. It was real fun with 75 people that you know from the past 17 years, it was the perfect Malibu crowd with some decent surfing ability. Make it a point to be there next year, even if you are not in the contest. On Monday, after the contest it was just insane, 8' to 10' faces peeling across the point. What a sight to behold. The 1st go out was way fun with 6 or 7 waves all the way through. The second was another matter, just a bit on the brutal side, only got 2 through and went to the beach with a limp. Everybody and their mother, brother, and whole family being stuffed hard by the pussy shortboarders on the inside. I guess that modern day surfing. Slash, bang, and no manners, but the real surfers don't need to be schooled, just scolded.

The blind surf event (Sight Impaired) at Ponto was a real success this year thanks to the participation from everyone.

Blind Surf Hero List

Calvin Tom	Tim Redfield	Pat Pezzoli	Cravey Family
O'Reily Family	Felipi Pezzoli	Dean & Alexe Dilley	Pat Weber SDSA
Emerson Family	Woodworth Family	Skeet Jones	Stuart Grauer
Denise Rapenhagen	Robert Logreco	Leonard Ortiz

Thank you Larry Graff, The Lions Club, and Pat Weber for bringing the boards, and all of you, give yourself a hand.

Our club Event, The 11th Annual Syrus King Club Challenge Invitational will be held Oct 19th & 20th at Cardiff Reef. Come to the next meeting, there will be a speaker on the club logo and copyrights, Richard D. Clarke. TomTom Productions will have a video of the famous South Seas Surf Sessions with Mark Brolaski, Scott Bass and others. See you there at 7pm at 134 Pacific in Solana Beach.

I would like to make a point in mentioning to the club that we owe a debt of gratitude, and especially myself to Mr. Jim Pidgon for taking photos and preserving the image that we have on our new logo of Syrus. Thanks for taking Syrus on all those photo shoots, and filming all those contests. I thank you Jim for preserving Syrus's image for me, and not to mention the world to always see. Thank you Jim Pidgon. Not to mention all the club functions and other great surfers he has captured on film. Everyone come to the next club meeting see you there!

See you in the Pit. Deep I'm sure. B.K.

Drew Woodworth took 3rd at Malibu

Competition Update

Jersey Box Oct. 2002

September gave us a few good south swells, starting with the day before the MSA contest. Malibu came through with machine like quality and consistency. We as a team placed 10th, not too bad considering we did not have a complete showing. Mike Emerson finished first in the 30-39 men's division, Drew Woodworth placed third in the menhunes, Schuyler McFerran placed 4th in the women's 15-29. Congratulations !! I want to thank everyone who participated and helped me at the contest site.

Our own contest is happening in three weeks, October 19th and 20th. Please call me to sign up. 760-634-1033 and 760-634-0801.

Sincerely,

John

Meeting Minutes: September 10th General Meeting

Visitors

Bruce had Mark Brolawski and Tom English speak about trip to Indonesia. Denise Repehagen attended 2nd meeting.

New News

Club welcomed Kirk Morse as latest member!

Jeanette mentioned the formation of new women's surfing circuit. New organization has held 2 meetings in Costa Rica, one schedule for following weekend at Imperial Beach Pier at 10:00 AM (at contest). During the meeting intent is to form new board and elect members.

MSA Contest

Club got 10th overall with light turnout of SSA surfers. Mike Emerson won his division, Drew Woodworth took 3rd in Menehune, Skyler McFerran got 4th. Super good waves, 97 heats, killer affair! John Reinhardt said best he's seen in 30 years (until the tide change shut it down).

Club Contest

Gary Baum has graciously volunteered to steer the dinner this year. Gary passed around signup sheet for volunteers. Marc Adam has the band identified, the O'Reillys did play some music from another band to consider in the future. Bruce wants to discuss further at the board meeting. Bruce is looking for sponsor forms – needs to contact Sharon Pease. Pat Pezzoli prepared the club invites for this years contest – thanks Pat! There is one campsite available currently – Bruce asked that people keep trying to get more sites for the weekend of Oct. 19th/20th.

Other points:

- George Brolawski will be head judge
- 12 clubs invited
- 2-day event
- Coalition guidelines
- Pat Pezzoli will run Menehune event
- Chapman brothers to coordinate Jr. event
- Mark Brolawski suggested club consider sponsoring our Jrs. Entry fees. To be discussed at upcoming board meeting.

Finally, John Reinhardt reminder everyone that they need to show up and be ready to surf for the club!
